For each sermon in this series ask yourself these three questions:

1. Is there a command for me to obey?
2. Is there an example for me to follow?
3. Is there a principle for me to apply?

Discussion Questions:

1. How would you respond to a critic saying, “The God of The Old Testament is an angry, violent, and uncaring (of human life) God, but Jesus is a peaceful, pacifist who cared deeply about people.”
2. Why do Christians justify the violence called for in the book of Joshua but condemn the violence called for in the Quran (the holy book of Islam)?
3. What kind of reasonable defense would you make for someone questioning the historicity of the miraculous in the Book of Joshua (ex. parting of the waters in chapters 3-4, the battle of Jericho in chapter 6, the sun standing still in chapter 10, etc)?
4. What questions do you have regarding the book of Joshua? Would you like to participate in a post-series Q&A?
