:: WORSHIP TODAY

Sermon: "Dealing with Sin – Round 1"

Text: Nehemiah 5

Every family, company, team, and organization must deal with sin. The consequences are too heavy to let sin run rampant. Systematic destruction is always the result of unchecked sin. Sin is like a snake and the leader can either grab it by the tail (management) or grab it by the throat (repentance).

Assisted hearing devices are available at Guest Services.

Gulf Coast Women's Ministry Leaders Needed: In our presbytery, the Gulf Coast's Women's Ministry exists to fulfill the purpose set by our General Assembly for women to gather together to further the Kingdom.

Currently, we are seeking women to serve as the Vice-President and as Secretary. If you are a member in good standing of a PCA church in the Gulf Coast Presbytery, will you consider helping advance the Kingdom of God by serving as Vice President or Secretary? For information on these positions including job descriptions, please contact the Chairman of the Nominating Committee, Susan McCrary, at 504-460-5271 or at susan.mccrary@gmail.com.

1. How important is the skill of listening to people who have been hurt by sin? Why do you say that? And how do you think we improve this skill?
2. How do you typically handle things when others sin against you? Do you tend to ignore it or confront it? Do you handle it differently when people sin against those God has called you to lead?
3. What similarities, if any, do you see in the way Nehemiah handled the sin of the Jewish people and the way Christ handled the sin of the world?
4. Nehemiah led the people by example. He even pointed that out to them. In 1 Corinthians 11:1, Paul said, "Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ." Is that arrogant of Nehemiah and Paul? Why or why not? And could you say the same thing?
